

Food Processor Tip

The top of the food processor or blender can be a pain to clean because of the ridges and crevices. If you are not adding ingredients through the spout, cover the container with plastic wrap before putting on the lid and you won't have to clean the top. Even if you have to remove the top to scrape ingredients from the side, just carefully remove the plastic wrap and reapply when you are ready to put the top on.